Welcome!

Congratulations on receiving employment with Dining Services. We're happy that you've chosen us as your employer.

The year was 1993. I had just finished my freshman year at Ohio State and was hired as a Student Assistant at the Fawcett Center. I was working for their dining operations, clearing and setting up rooms for conferences and banquets. I was where you are now, starting my journey in employment at The Ohio State University! Little did I know that I would eventually be asked to take on the role of Interim Senior Director of Dining Services and have an opportunity to welcome student employees as they start their employment journey.

The Office of Student Life is committed to helping you engage, learn and thrive at Ohio State. I can attest to the benefits of that commitment. The more I was engaged in my employment as a student, and learned more about the hospitality industry, more doors were open to me to advance and succeed not only as a student but as a professional in the hospitality industry.

As a part of our Dining Services team, you help keep our operations running smoothly by delivering excellence, accountability and great customer service. These principles are the foundation of Dining Services and will be applicable to your everyday life in and out of the classroom. Our goal is to provide our student employees with skills to be used throughout your lifetime no matter where your journey takes you after graduation.

EXCELLENCE

ACCOUNTABILITY

We understand the importance of balancing school, work and your social life. We want your experience to benefit your personal and academic growth whether through the development of time management skills, leadership development or fostering an appreciation of a diverse workforce. Please do not hesitate to ask questions of your managers or provide suggestions for future improvements.

This essential handbook is designed to familiarize you with our policies and expectations during your employment with us as well as providing you with tips for success. You will receive on-the-job training and information to supplement this manual.

Thank you in advance for your dedication and commitment to the continued improvement of our department.

Sincerely,

Abby Hertzfeld

Performance Improvement Plans and Corrective Action

Corrective Action Policy

Your Student Employment experience is a wonderful opportunity to gain relevant work experience and prepare yourself for a career after graduation. Supervisors are ready to support you in learning from work performance throughout your time with Dining Services. To best manage expectations and not negatively impact the business and fellow staff, we do have a corrective action point structure. Managers are solution focused when coaching students when they are assigned a correction action point. Our goal is to minimize and resolve performance issues in a supportive space where students can learn from mistakes and continue to thrive in their employment role.

Employees are required to arrive on time and ready to perform their job duties. An unscheduled absence from work affects the unit's ability to meet guests' needs. A point system is used to manage this accountability, yet give allowance to some unavoidable absences.

A commitment to clear communication with supervisors and peer leaders is critical for your employment success and prevents avoidable point acquisition.

POINT

TARDY Not present and ready to work in assigned work area at start time of scheduled shift. Any clock in time three minutes past scheduled start time will be recorded as a tardy.

POINTS

ILLNESS ABSENCE A call off due to illness will result in two points per illness occurrence. Student is removed from schedule until permitted to return. To return, employee must be clear of symptoms for at least 24 hours or have a written release from a medical practitioner. Doctor notes do not excuse an illness absence for zero points.

ABSENCES Includes shifts called-off in advance for which a replacement has not been found or when you are more than an 30 minutes late for your scheduled shift.

POINTS

NO CALL/NO SHOW Three consecutive no call/no show occurrences will be considered job abandonment, and manager will move forward with termination.

POINT

BEHAVIORAL This includes uniform infractions, concern for safety (including food safety), insubordination, neglect of duty and any other behavioral related incidents that necessitate documentation. As temporary employees, employment status is at-will; if behavior is deemed extreme; you can, and will be terminated and may not be eligible for future employment in our department.

10+
POINTS

TERMINATION Ten or more corrective action points is grounds for termination. A point is removed six months from date assigned. All points removed when hired or promoted into a new dining employment position. There are no permanent point assignments

Attendance Policies

Plan Ahead

Plan accordingly based on your assigned work schedule and semester syllabus. While you are a student first, studying for exams is not an excuse to call off a shift.

Premium Dates

Any large, university sanctioned events affecting the operation are classified as "premium dates," when allowed absences are limited. Points accrued during these instances will be doubled. Your management team will communicate the department identified premium dates with ample notice.

Points Forgiveness

Full time management team may "forgive" up to 4 points a semester once a student works a pre-approved, unit identified critical shifts. One shift would remove one point. Talk to a full time manager for more information and approval.

Call off and Late Arrival Communication

If you are not able to work or arrive on time to your schedule shift, it is professional courtesy to notify your manager in a timely manner. To give our team enough time to adjust for your absence or late arrival, a 2-hour notice prior to the start of your shift is most ideal. Failure to provide adequate notice may result in corrective action points. Please confirm what call off method of communication is preferred with your management team.

Find a Replacement

It is each employee's responsibility to find a replacement for a shift they plan on missing. For planned absences that are a challenge to get covered, Employees are encouraged to seek guidance from a scheduling manager. Scheduling conflicts should be resolved no later than 1 week from the conflict date. A request to "drop shift" on scheduling platform does not equate to shift coverage.

Trained Shift Pickup

A replacement for a shift pickup must be able to perform the same duties as the student employee they are replacing.

Timekeeping and Pay

Timeclocks

Time worked must match your assigned work schedule and you cannot clock in/out early without the approval of a supervisor prior to the occurrence.

To clock in and out, swipe your BuckID at your units' timekeeping clock. Failure to consistently do so appropriately will result in disciplinary action or delay of pay. Employees are to be ready to work upon clocking in.

Timeclock Training

Review training documents and videos to familiarize yourself with how to use time clocks.

University Closure

In the event of a university closure due to severe weather or other conditions, Dining Services remains open, as we provide essential services to maintain the health and well being of over 10,000 students and guests. You are expected to report to work (in some situations, you may be asked to work at another operation). In the event that you do not need to come to work, you will be notified by the management team of your operation. Students employed at Regional Campus should contact supervisor in the event of a Regional Campus closure.

Schedule Management

SubItUp is a cloud-based employee scheduling software used by several departments within The Ohio State University Office of Student Life. Unit managers will use SubItUp to create employee schedules and assign shifts, and employees can use the software to view their work schedules, as well as request shift changes and trades.

As an employee at a unit that uses SubItUp, you already have an account. When you visit the SubItUp page or use the mobile app, log in using the SSO (Single Sign On) link and provide your university name.# and password when prompted.

If you have a disability

If you rely on a screen reader or the keyboard for access to your computer, you will experience difficulty using this system. As the University works with SubItUp to improve accessibility, please contact your direct manager for information about accommodations, or write to dining@osu.edu for assistance in navigating and using this system. A member of our team will respond within 2 business days to assist you.

Credit Hours /Maximum Hours Per week

It is necessary to maintain full-time status as a student of The Ohio State University to be employed with Dining Services. Failure to do so could result in termination. If you are retained and fall below the required credit hours, you will be required to pay into Ohio Public Employees Retirement System (OPERS).

- Domestic students are restricted to a maximum of 28 hours of work per week during academic terms.
- International students are only allowed to work a maximum of 20 hours per week.

Please reference the University policy on student employment for full terms of employment details.

Breaks and Meals

If you work a shift of more than 8 hours, you must have a ½ hour break off the clock. Clock out for your break, and clock back in when you return to duty. Breaks may be available for students that work less than 8 hours, however are at the discretion of management and approved if business allows.

Student employees working a shift are eligible to receive a free meal. This equivalency may vary by operation. This meal is to be eaten prior to or after the employee's scheduled shift (the employee must be clocked out). The meal will be prepared by another employee and a manager on duty will ring the employee meal into the register and process payment using the location's meal swipe card.

Pay Information

Pay Schedule

Employees are paid bi-weekly, every other Friday according to the pay calendar.

Provided all necessary forms are complete, you should receive your first paycheck no later than 26 days after the day you start working. Paystubs can be reviewed in Workday. Must verify and submit time in Workday on a weekly basis. Report any errors to management in a timely manner to avoid delay in correct pay.

Direct Deposit

Students should enroll in direct deposit as soon as possible after their first day of employment for automatic deposit to your bank account at 12 a.m. on payday.

In certain circumstances, it can take up to eight weeks for activation.

Paycard

Ohio State employees may receive pay through direct deposit to a paycard. The paycard is accepted at millions of ATMs and anywhere Visa is accepted.

OPERS

Employees, including student employee, of Ohio public institutions do not participate in federal social security system. Instead, Ohio State University employees participate in Ohio Public Employee Retirement System (OPERS). Student Employees have an option to participate or may be eligible to opt out. To participate, students are automatically enrolled without further action. To opt out, student must submit exemption request within 30 days of hire date.

Uniform / Employee Standards

You are a representative of Dining Services.

Our guests often gauge the quality of our service by the appearance of our staff, in terms of both cleanliness and professionalism.

University Catering Uniform Guidance

Event staff requirements: black long pants/slacks that cover the ankles, black belt if pants have loops, polo style uniform shirt or black button-down logo uniform shirt, solid black shoes that cover entire foot (leather and no slip preferable).

Once your shift has ended, you are to leave.

You are not permitted to be in the work area if you are not clocked in.

Hygiene and Sanitation

Additionally, hygiene and sanitation are essential to the job: a safe food handler is critical to the prevention of food-borne illnesses, which can spread in a number of ways. Proper procedures must be followed to ensure customers have a positive, sanitary experience.

Electronic Devices and Homework

Use of cell phones, other entertainment devices, and doing homework are not permitted while on duty because they reduce our focus on the customer and ability to provide quality service. Cell phone use is strictly prohibited in areas with direct food handling or in guest view. You may use these while on a scheduled break. Some locations provide music and video entertainment for our patrons; the volume and content must be kept appropriate.

Your role in doing so includes following these simple rules:

HAIR

Always restrain your hair properly with uniform hat or hairnet. Hair and bangs should be fully under the hat or hair net.

FACIAL HAIR

Neatly groomed facial hair. Food handlers must wear beard guards.

NO HEADPHONES OR EARBUDS

Wearing personal headphones or earbuds is prohibited anytime while you are on the clock.

INJURY

Cover open cuts, sores and lesions with proper bandaging.

FOOD / DRINKS

Do not eat, drink, smoke or chew tobacco in food preparation or service areas.

CHEWING GUM

Chewing gum is prohibited anytime while you are on the clock.

ILLNESS

Notify your manager of any illnesses you might have.

Guest Service

Consistent Authentic Service

What makes a visit to a dining hall, a café, a coffee shop, or a diner an extraordinary experience? Receiving a good tasting, quality product? Yes! Getting in and out in a timely fashion? Of course! Enjoying your meal in a comfortable and clean environment? Definitely! But are these elements the makings of an extraordinary experience or are we just meeting a guest's basic expectation?

A large percentage of our guests are students. This is their home, we are their kitchen. True hospitality requires not only treating guests the way that we ourselves wish to be treated but prioritizing guests' desires ahead of our own preferences. It is up to us to accommodate their needs and make them comfortable. This means that you are 100% invested and enthusiastic in providing service 100% of the time.

To move beyond a pleasant experience to an extraordinary experience requires each member of the team working together. Providing authentic service for all of our guests every time that they visit one of our locations is at the heart of the Dining Services' mission.

How to provide Authentic Service:

Be Here Now

Be present both physically and mentally.

Be Prepared

Be presentable and ready to serve.

Be Consistent

Building a connection with every guest, every time.

Be Appreciative

Convey gratitude for your role within the university and the guests who choose your location.

Be Personable

Be true to you and serve with a style and a smile.

Dining Services holds the commitment to Authentic Service as a top priority.

Throughout the duration of your employment, feedback about your commitment to Authentic Service will be provided by your management team, from customer service snapshots, annual merit evaluations and other department reviews.

Dining Services measures Authentic Service in the following ways:

- At every guest interaction, staff will convey a sense of urgency to Smile, Greet and make Eye Contact.
- Staff will be responsible to keep service and work areas Neat, Clean and Organized at all times.
- At all times, staff remains Positive, Busy and Attentive.
- Every guest experience is Unique and Personalized to satisfy all needs.
- All interactions will end with an Authentic and Appreciative farewell.

Authentic (adj.)

not false, genuine, real, trustworthy; true to one's personality, spirit or character.

Rewards and Recognition

Department-Wide Recognition

Dining Services hosts an annual Student Appreciation Banquet. Our most notable student employees from across campus are nominated to attend and mingle in a fun, informal atmosphere so we can show just how much we truly value your service.

Each of our Operations Managers is responsible for sending one employee to serve as the representative voice of his or her co-workers on the departmental Student Employee Council. The Senior Director, and often other leadership team members, meet regularly with this group to solicit feedback on many topics, including potential new products, general operational procedures and ideas for continuous improvement.

Dining Services utilizes feedback from our guests, an annual customer satisfaction survey, and a panel of secret shoppers, to determine how well we're doing in serving our guests. In instances where employees are called out for outstanding service, we make every effort to publicly promote this good news – via bulletin board postings, word-of-mouth and formal department communication.

Pay Increases

As of August 2025, pay increases for student employees occur on an annual basis prior to the start of fall semester each academic year. The increase is added to the pay rate of the role active as of July 1 and is not transferable when moving into a new employment role. Eligibility for the annual pay increase is determined based on such factors as job performance, dependability and time served in Dining.

Opportunities for Advancement

Our goal is to create an extraordinary student experience, with a focus on supporting learning and growth through developmental opportunities. Students are encouraged to be active partners in their professional and personal development.

Take the initiative to ask questions, volunteer for projects, set a positive example for others, and ask supervisors about opportunities for improvement and additional training, including advancement opportunities to student leads and/or student managers. A promotion into a new role typically results in a change to the student's hourly rate.

Sanitation and Safety

Food Safety

We follow HACCP (Hazard Analysis and Critical Control Points) procedures for food-safe handling in our operations. HACCP is a management system in which food safety is addressed through the analysis and control of hazards from raw material production, procurement and handling, to manufacturing, distribution and consumption of the finished product. This includes frequently checking and recording temperatures and taking appropriate actions if food items are deemed potentially unsafe (in the danger zone of 41–135°F for more than 2 hours).

Other precautions include:

- Do not store raw meats above other food items
- First in First Out (FIFO)
- ALL items stored at least 6" off the floor
- Cover, date, label and store all food in containers at proper temperatures

Illness

In order to control the spread of disease to staff, guests and food, you are encouraged to report any illness to your supervisor. Depending on your symptoms, a manager will restrict you from handling food or exclude you from coming into work altogether.

In the event of an illness, follow the procedure in calling off outlined in this manual. To return to work, you must have been clear of symptoms for at least 24 hours or have a written release from a medical practitioner. Per Ohio Revised Food Code, failure to report the listed illnesses, symptoms or diagnosis could result in ramifications by the local health authority.

You should not come in to work if:

You have lesions containing pus on hands, wrists or exposed body parts.

You are experiencing flu-like symptoms:

- fever
- vomiting
- diarrhea
- constant sneezing and/or coughing

You have been diagnosed with following by a healthcare provider:

- Campulobacter
- Cryptosporidium
- Cyclospora
- Entamoeba histolytica
- Enterohemorrhagic or Shiga toxin-producing Escherichia coli
- Giardia
- Hepatitis A
- Norovirus
- Salmonella spp
- Salmonella Typhi
- Shigella
- Vibrio Cholerae
- Yersinia

Chemical Safety

Chemicals are used in our facilities for the purpose of sanitizing and cleaning. A SDS (Safety Data Sheet) Book is available at each location that outlines these chemicals, with proper use. Please be sure to familiarize yourself with these procedures for safe handling for everyone's safety.

Always

- Read the label and instructions.
- Use no more of a chemical than recommended by the manufacturer.
- Observe safety precautions.
- Ask questions if directions are unclear.
- Properly dispose of empty containers.

Never

- Mix different chemicals.
- Store chemicals near or above food storage, preparation or serving areas.
- Store chemicals in unmarked containers.
- Leave containers uncovered.
- Store aerosols near heat or use near eyes or in the vicinity of an open flame.
- Transfer solutions containing chemicals prepared by one employee to another employee.

Hand Washing

Proper hand washing is the number one combatant of food borne illness.

You must wash your hands properly after:

- Touching any area of your body (e.g. ears, mouth, nose, hair or clothing)
- Handling money
- Making contact with unclean equipment and work surfaces
- Smoking
- Handling raw food—particularly meat and poultry
- Clearing away and scraping dishes and utensils
- Eating
- Using the restroom
- Using gloves
- Any other condition where cross-contamination may occur, such as front-of-house duties like trash, sweeping or wiping tables.

The proper hand-washing procedure is to:

- Wet your hands with HOT running water.
- Apply approved antimicrobial soap and lather for at least 20 seconds.
- Clean under fingernails and between fingers.
- Rinse hands thoroughly under running water.
- Dry your hands with a fresh, disposable paper towel.

Using Gloves

Gloves are not a replacement for proper hand washing and must be worn when serving or handling any unpackaged food items. Gloves are always single-use and must be changed when you are changing tasks. Remember, once you are wearing gloves, you must not touch your hair, face, clothing or other parts of the body, the floor, chemicals or any other surface that could transfer contaminants to the food.

Change your gloves when:

They become soiled, discolored or torn

Before beginning a different task

At least every four hours during continual use

After handling raw meat, fish, or poultry and before handling cooked or ready-to-eat food

Food Allergies

Keeping guests with food allergies safe in our dining locations is a responsibility shared by all employees within dining services. Ninety percent of all allergic reactions are linked to the 9 most common food allergens; peanuts, tree nuts, eggs, dairy, wheat, soy, fish, shellfish and sesame. Detailed ingredient and allergen information can be referenced on the Dining Website.

You will be responsible for following the 5 steps in allergen risk reduction:

- 1 Be able to distinguish differences between a food allergy and a food intolerance, as well as recognize the symptoms associated with each.
- 2 Identify the 9 most common food allergens and how to locate information on food labels and menus.
- 3 Show respect to special requests and take each seriously.
- 4 Recognize the dangers of cross contact and how to prevent it.
- 5 Be prepared to respond to an allergen emergency.

All menu items are reviewed by the Dining Service's Registered Dietitians and labeled with the following icons depending on the allergens present and other specific dietary traits:

CONTAINS DAIRY

Items contain milk protein, or are made on shared equipment.

CONTAINS NUTS

Items contain peanuts or tree nuts, or are made on shared equipment.

VEGAN

Items do not contain any animal derivatives, including meat, poultry, fish, dairy, eggs or honey.

VEGETARIAN

Items do not contain meat, poultry, or fish, but may contain dairy and/or egg.

NO GLUTEN INGREDIENTS

Items do not contain barley, wheat, rye or non gluten free oats. Items are not certified Gluten Free, as we cannot guarantee less than 20 ppm gluten.

NOT REVIEWED

These items have not yet been reviewed by the dining services dietitian or are not prepared by Dining Services, therefore we are unable to label these items and verify the presence of any potential allergens.

General Workplace Safety

Safety in the workplace is everyone's responsibility. Instruction will be provided for you if you work in a specific area in our restaurants that has additional safety procedures (i.e. working with knives, operating the dish machine, scraping plates and dishes, etc). Simply being AWARE (Always Watching And Recording your Environment) often identifies occupational hazards, which prescribes that general guidelines apply to everyone:

A Always
W Watching
A And
R Recording your
E Environment

WIPE UP SPILLS, pick up any objects lying on any floor and keep work areas clear of blockages/clutter.

DO NOT OPERATE EQUIPMENT or use chemicals without the proper training and safety precautions in place. Refer to the Material Safety Data Sheet (MSDS) for chemical use.

Be specific and provide as much descriptive information about the robber as possible.
- Do not try to follow the robber or place yourself or others in danger.

Community and Engagement Programing

Community and sense of belonging are key drivers for a student's academic and social success. Student employment is a great outlet for this engagement! Dining Services recognizes that student employment is not just a means to a paycheck and work experience, but an opportunity to connect with others while contributing to the greater community. Many of our locations participate in our community building programing lead by student leaders aptly named Student Community Leaders.

Student Community Leaders serve to create and cultivate a respectful and engaged community within a dining operation. Throughout the academic year, these student leaders educate their peers on the importance of wellness and sense of belonging through one on one conversation and variety of participatory programing events. These engagement events will be communicated throughout the year and we look forward to your participation. Opportunities to become a student community leader are regularly available. Ask your management team for details.

E.A.T (Early Arrival Team) with Dining Services

Each fall semester, Dining student employees are given the unique opportunity to arrive early to campus (at no additional housing cost for on campus residents) and participate in paid professional development sessions centered around leadership, wellness, and career development. This program also includes social events and teambuilding activities with fellow student employees. It's a great way to meet new students at both your operation and across Dining Services. This program creates a smoother transition back to work for the Fall Semester before classes start. Information pertaining to registration is communicated each spring semester and over the summer sessions.

Student Employment Experience (SEE)

As an employee within the Office of Student Life, you will be participating in the Student Employment Experience or SEE.

The program is made up of the following three experiential components:

1. A learning-centric employment role.
2. OSU GROW reflection conversation. Adapted from IOWA GROW® Used with permission from ©The University of Iowa
3. Training and Development Opportunities. Both the students and managers will be active participants to support the growth and development of all student employees.

A student's participation in an Ohio State GROW conversation provides a regular opportunity for student employees and their supervisors to reflect on their work and engage in conversation regarding their current achievements and opportunities for improvement. This conversation will also address behavioral areas including guest service, communication, team-work, job knowledge, dependability and quality of work to determine a student's eligibility for the annual increase prior to the start of fall semester.

General Onboarding

Training and Orientation

You will receive on-the-job training for your core duties, as well as guidelines in safety and sanitation at the beginning of your employment. Supplemental coursework is contingent upon your job description, and will include knife skills training and basic customer service. Content is delivered on-the-job at your unit, through online modules in BuckeyeLearn and through scheduled in person sessions, like knife skills training. Knife skills in person training is held regularly in the Instructional Kitchen on the lower level of the Ohio Union.

Self Disclosure of Convictions

Per university policy, all current employees are required to self-disclose any criminal convictions within three business days of the conviction. Employees that fail to disclose criminal convictions or fail to provide accurate details will be subject to corrective action, up to and including termination.

Dismissal Info

Transferring

If you are interested in switching to another work location in Dining Services, you can apply online or email dining@osu.edu. You should indicate that you currently work for our department and the manager will contact you if they are interested in conducting an interview. Because we request two weeks notice, you should make this requirement known in your interview and give notice to your current manager immediately if offered the position. If you do not adequately give or fulfill this notice, you may be subject to disciplinary action.

Ending your Employment

In the event you must leave your position, we ask that you provide at least two weeks' notice. This will assist your manager in replacing your position and is a professional courtesy. Students who do not provide us with this advance notice and/or fail to work their remaining shifts may jeopardize future employment in Dining Services or the attainment of professional references.

While student employment has many benefits, it also comes with responsibilities. Students who are terminated for cause, or otherwise violate policies, may be ineligible for future employment. Students in this situation are not automatically discouraged from submitting employment applications; however, past student conduct may be reviewed during the selection process.
